THE WORLD IN PICTURES

A FINE LINE... Bear in mind that Chicago is known as the Windy City, and highwire daredevil Nik Wallenda's record-breaking stunts across its skyline become even more hair-raising. The 35-year-old from Florida last week blindfolded himself to feel his way from the top of one skyscraper to another in just 1:17 minutes. This trumped a feat just moments earlier, where he walked the length of two city blocks across the Chicago River at a 19° incline. Naturally, Nik has his own slant on it all: "You guys watching think I'm crazy, but this is what I'm made for."
